3. Proposed Zoning Ordinances Ballot 2022:

Short discussion on the ballot. The NH Department of Justice (DOJ) had concerns that the board was asking for two changes. The changes were the same but located in two different Articles. The ballot was sent to Attorney Hoppock who separated and rewrote the amendments one for Article 2 and one for Article 6.

The board had concern that the Amendment included "as proposed by the Planning Board". They wanted the residents to know that this was a change the Selectmen asked the Planning Board to make and that the Planning Board is the only vehicle that can put Zoning Amendments on the Ballot for March. Land Use Assistant said that there could be a little bleep in the March issue of the Richmond Rooster.
